

Sigma workshop on Using Online Resources and the Virtual Learning Environment to Promote and Enhance Maths Support

10:30 – 16:00 on 28 November 2014 at Central St Martin's, Archway Campus,
2 Elthorne Road, Archway, London, N19 4AG

- 10:30 – 10:55 Registration with refreshments
- 10:55 – 11:00 Brief intro and welcome (Noel-Ann Bradshaw, Greenwich)
- 11:00 – 11:30 *The Evolution of a Support Centre: MathsAid online (Nigel Atkins, Kingston University)
- 11:30 – 12:00 *Flipping classrooms - using online resources with Excel and VLE to enhance Maths support (Allison Smale, Bucks New University)
- 12:00 – 12:30 *HowCloud: a new teaching and learning tool for mathematics (Joe Ros, HowCloud)
- 12:30 – 13:30 LUNCH
- 13:30 – 14:00 *Use of diagnostic testing to improve access to maths support (Chetna Patel, Sheffield University)
- 14:00 – 14:30 *Providing maths support and improving transition into university life through VLE at Brunel (Inna Namestnikova, Brunel University London)
- 14:30 – 15:00 *Use of VLE in Statistics and SPSS support at Brunel University (Christine Pereira, Brunel University London)
- 15:00 – 15:30 *Problems and solutions navigating to maths support resources (Leslie Fletcher, Liverpool John Moores University)
- 15:30 – 15:50 TEA BREAK with discussion and opportunity for other attendees to share further idea
- 15:50 – 16:00 Conclusion and feedback